

Week 6 Questions and Answers

Here are many of the questions raised but not answered during the live session.

Questions are in BOLD. Dr. Day's answers follow each question. Names are removed to protect privacy.

Q – I am confused as to who will be saved from their sins?

Everyone will be saved from their sins

Q – Will they be saved from reaping what they have sowed because they have eonian life?

They will be saved from their sins THROUGH reaping what they have sown, because through the “reaping” they will eventually recognize that 1) they shouldn't do those things again, AND 2) they need Jesus Christ to run their life – and THAT is the way they obtain eonian life, by learning from their mistakes.

Q – Dr. Day, you just mentioned the first group going to heaven, will they be spared suffering from loved ones on earth?

I'm not sure I understand your question. The first group will go to heaven when Jesus Comes. And at that time, the world will be destroyed and everyone in it, so NO ONE will be suffering on earth. They will all be dead – waiting for the Second Resurrection and the Judgment after which they will begin reaping what they have sown.

Q – The promise of our loved ones being saved; will that mean they will be with us?

Those who died as true Christians and those who are still alive (and are true Christians) at the time of Jesus Second Coming, will go to heaven together. Those who are NOT saved at that time, will NOT go to heaven, they will die in the chaos that destroys the earth. BUT – they will ALL be resurrected at the Judgment, to then begin reaping what they have sown. The Judgment takes place on earth. Those who have been with Jesus in heaven for the millennium, will come back to earth with the Lord. After the unsaved have reaped what they have sown, God will Re-Create the earth, and everyone will live on this earth for eternity. Jesus will make His headquarters here on earth for eternity. Heaven is just a temporary place for God’s headquarters now.

Q – I would like to expand on that question – what exactly did Jesus' death do for us?

Sin leads to death. Jesus, though sinless, DIED for the sins of everyone who has ever been born or created (such as the evil angels). Because Jesus, who NEVER sinned, took the consequences for everyone who HAS sinned, it gave Him the legitimate authority to eventually put HIS character and disposition into everyone sinner – and change him – to “make ALL new.”

Because Jesus never sinned, He could take the consequences of ALL sinners by DYING on the cross. If Jesus hadn’t done that (died for sinners), then Satan would “bring charges” against God saying that it would not be fair to resurrect and save the sinners, because the “price” of sin is DEATH – and the sinners should have to “pay the price” by “staying DEAD!” Satan would say that Jesus, to be fair, would have to leave all sinners DEAD (because that is the penalty for sin).

Q – If He had not died, would we all still be saved after reaping what we sowed, or would we have died permanently?

As I stated above, If (sinless) Jesus had NOT died for the “sins of the world”, He would not have the right to resurrect the unsaved (wicked) and turn them around by having them reap what they have sown.

Q– Do you think the harlot in Revelation represents the Muslims?

The answer to that question will be coming up when we get to Rev 17.

Q – Although we were all born sinners, does a child will have to reap what he sow? Is there a certain age that is more considered? Thank you!

If you have children, do they (or did they, as you were raising them) have consequences for things they did that they knew were wrong? Or did you just say, “Oh you broke all of your sister’s toys. But that’s O.K. There are no consequences for your bad behavior.”

Q – Dr. Day, my Mom and I saw a blood moon a few weeks ago, around 11:00. Do you think this was a sign God showing us the “End” is coming?

No. When the signs in the heavens really begin, right near the end, there will be no question that they are “signs in the sky.” EVERYONE will know something BIG has happened, but very few will recognize it as a sign of Jesus’ coming.

Q – What is the purpose of prayer?

What is the purpose of talking to a new friend? Answer: To get to know that friend. What was the purpose of you talking to the person who became your spouse before you married him (or her), (since you don’t give your name, I don’t know your gender.) Answer: To get to KNOW him or her.

What is the purpose of prayer? Answer: To get to KNOW God. God “talks to you and tells you about Himself” through YOU reading His Word – the Bible – a book that tells you who God is – and all about His character. And You talk to God, through prayer. THAT type of two-way conversation between you and God is the way you get to KNOW Him.

Q – How do you explain this verse John 7:39? it says the Holy Spirit was not given yet.

To answer that question, it would take me several pages and about 20 texts.

Q – If someone is bound in sinful habits, why does God not always free them from those habits if they are praying and seeking to be freed?

Let me see if I have your question correct: Let’s say I am a smoker and I want to quit. Then all I have to do is pray and ask God to free me, and “Voila” – – – I’m miraculously delivered from that habit? I don’t have to use any self-control or get rid of the cigarettes that are hidden all over my house, or make preparations to succeed. I just ask my “Santa Claus in the sky” and he will take it all away immediately?

Can I do the same with asking God to make me an international tennis champion too? I just Ask Him – and “Voila” – – I am a tennis champion!! I don’t have to practice every day, month after month, year after year. I just suddenly am a tennis champion? Do “Quick Fixes” like that EVER build character in a person or does that enable me to be a terribly spoiled, self-centered immature “child” who demands anything he wants and gets it immediately??!!

Q – Is Satan only active on the earth or does he operate throughout the universe?

We know he was active in heaven because he won over 1/3 of the angels. There is evidence from the Bible that there are other inhabited planets, but there is no evidence that they succumbed to sin. The Bible strongly implies that this earth is the only planet that sinned, and that’s why the whole universe is watching, and that’s why, after God has SAVED EVERYONE, He will move His headquarters from heaven to this earth – for eternity – because this earth will be His Great TRIUMPH!

Q --Dr Day as a parent I would never say to my child, I won’t bring you through this. I only want a few to come now, so I will show you. what parent would do that?

I’m sorry. I don’t understand your question. Please be more specific. “I won’t bring you through – – – what?” And “I only want a few to come now – – – to do what, or to go where???”

Q – What is someone to do who cannot get the victory over sinful habits?

There is no such person. God says, “Behold, I make ALL new.” You’re “selling God short.” You are saying that He is not capable of bringing that person to the point of overcoming his or her sinful habits. That means you are worshiping God as though he were a mere human being. If God can create a human being just by “speaking him into existence” – God will have NO problem getting that person to the point of gaining the victory over sinful habits.

Q – What is your thought on the earth burning because of an asteroid or meteorite colliding with earth?

There already are known places where asteroids have collided with the earth. But the last great conflagration will NOT be from an asteroid or meteorite. The Bible tells us in 2 Peter, chapter 3, where the fires will come from that will burn up the earth. The way it is told in that chapter is a little hidden, but when you understand the Bible, it becomes clear.

Q – “Scientists” say the moon has light though the sun. I know this is not true, because once as I watched a sunset, and the moon was already up, shedding it’s very own light. Any comments on this? I know God made the Sun AND the moon; this is what I’ve learned so far.

Can you tell me how the answer to that question makes a difference?

Q – Rev 20:10 says tormented day and night forever and ever.

Please watch the video. I explained that the words “forever and ever” are Not in the Bible.

Q – What is the meaning if this will not last and God will not leave us?

I don’t understand your question.

Q – Dr Day, you once said that it took you a long time to accept many truths that were lies regarding the Aids issue and the lies regarding cancer. I can’t wrap my head around the fact that the 4 families in control of California are deliberately killing people in California? Am I naive?

Can you tell me specifically where I ever said these four families were “killing people in California”??? I never said that. I said that these four families had ruled over California for 80 years, and that their job was to destroy California by destroying the economy (remember, I talked about the ECONOMY of California in relation to all the other nations), which they are clearly doing.

Q – I started to read the Greek/Hebrew using the Strong's Concordance (which I truly appreciate and enjoy!), there is a passage I just can't understand in Genesis 6:6 where it says that God repented or regretted to have created man... I must be missing something or why doesn't it make any sense to me that God

"repented"? Is this again something in the actual Bibles that is not well translated? My apologies if it is not directly related to the book of Revelation, but no one can give me a decent answer.

That's why it's SO important to read the Bible daily, and study it diligently, so you understand how God deals with human beings. Jesus came to earth as a human being so He could relate to us. When He uses this kind of language, He is again using language that relates to humanity. Jesus doesn't really "repent" or "regret" what He has done. He has had it all planned out BEFORE He created the world. He says so in the Bible. He is just saying how much He regrets that the whole world, except 8 (Noah and his family) turned against Him completely.

Q- It is very hard to be perfect. It causes anxiety, depression, stress, ect.

If you are a student taking French in a French language class, would you be depressed, anxious and stressed if, in the first few weeks, you didn't speak fluent French? Of course not. It takes TIME and practice to speak any foreign language fluently. And how do you get to that point? Study and practice and learn from your teacher! Study and practice and learn from your teacher! Study and practice and learn from your teacher!! And THAT is the way you eventually will become perfect: Study (God's Word) and PRACTICE God's word (by implementing into your life everything you learn from studying God's Word) and LEARN from your Teacher - Jesus Christ, by praying to Him every morning and evening, and learning who He is from studying the Bible.

Q - It's hard to believe that until we get there (perfection) that we'll be constantly reaping what we've sown.

Do you "constantly reap what you have sown" in your daily life? If you drive drunk and get caught - don't you "reap what you have sown" (maybe lose your license, or go to jail)? If you don't show up for work when you are supposed to, won't you 'reap what you have sown (maybe get fired)? So, I'm not sure what the problem is. Please explain it to me.

Q - God will just stand back and wait for us. Does he help us get to that place?

Please listen to the session again. I discuss that in some detail.

Q – Does he answer our prayers? Does he listen to our prayers if we're not perfect yet?

Do you listen to your children if they're not perfect yet?

Q – Rev 20:4 says the souls of those who had been beheaded for testifying about Yeshua and proclaiming the Word of God – Do you think the Christians during the One World Order doesn't take the mark of the beast that they will be beheaded?

It's possible. John the Baptist, who Jesus described as the “greatest of the prophets” was beheaded. Which would you prefer: to die a slow, painful death, naked – nailed to a cross – in front of a crowd that was spitting on you and throwing rocks at you, as Jesus did for ALL of us, or to be beheaded as John the Baptist was, or to be burned at the stake as many Christian martyrs were during the Dark Ages?

Q – Dr. Day, you mentioned that if “everyone’s salvation isn’t important to us then we aren’t safe to save”. please explain as I don’t have a heart for people I don’t know.

Why not? It is highly likely you “have a heart” for an abandoned, hungry dog, if you hear even just a story about that dog – and have never even seen him!

Q – Who are the 4 families that control California

The Browns, the Gettys, the Pelosis and the Newsoms.

Q – Is their proof they set fires deliberately

Are you asking if these four families deliberately set fires? WHERE IN THE WORLD DID ANYONE GET THAT IDEA? I NEVER SAID ANYTHING CLOSE TO THAT.

I first talked about the financial economy of California being the 5th largest in the world. Then I talked about these four families ruling over California for 80 years, and how they are destroying California. I NEVER MEANT THEY WERE SETTING FIRES. THEY ARE DESTROYING CALIFORNIA FINANCIALLY!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Why would I read the numbers concerning the economies of 15 different countries

(and states) if I were talking about these families setting fires or killing people????

Q - Dr. Day: you say that God loves us more than our parents but I would never allow my children to suffer up a mt

What does it mean to “suffer up a mt”?

Q - and scare a child he may be sacrificed like Abraham you mentioned.

God never asked Abraham to KILL his child. Abraham misunderstood God. God asked Abraham to present Isaac as an “ASCENT OFFERING.” The Bible MISTRANSLATES it as a “burnt offering.” God wanted Abraham to dedicate Isaac’s LIFE to serving God!!

How does that make him more loving than a parent?

Q- SO how does Jesus coming look like Biblically, if he is Not coming to the Earth?

You can look this up on the internet. Here is a link to 44 texts that describe Jesus Second coming: <http://ipost.christianpost.com/post/44-bible-verses-about-second-coming-of-jesus-christ-besides-the-gospels>

Q - Are you offering a Bible study for children, too? I'd love it! ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️ if you do, very small children should be able to learn from u too! referring to the children Bible study.

No, I have no plans for that.

Q - In Matthew 18: 6-7 Can you explain the text. It sounds like Jesus is saying if you harm a child, you'd be better off dead.

Again, if you are going to include a text, please write out the text for me, rather than forcing me to look it up myself. In that passage, Jesus is just trying to make a point with symbolic language. Just like in another place, he says, “You must HATE your mother and father and children, etc., or else you can’t be My disciple.” He doesn’t mean “HATE” the way human beings “Hate.” He is just making a strong point that if you are going to be His disciple, you must put HIM before everyone else.

Q – Is that free will? To be able to just do it.....

You are mixing apples and oranges.

Q – Is spending time with loved ones considered keeping the sabbath?

Keeping the Sabbath does NOT mean that you CANNOT spend it with loved ones. But THAT is not the primary purpose of the Sabbath. The Sabbath is to be set aside to learn to know GOD. Just spending time with loved ones does NOT help you know the Lord better.

Q – Where are we in the End Times Timeline? You had mentioned before that we are in the seals. What is coming next? What do you think of the Peace Deals happening now? What signs do we need to look for?

We will be discussing that in future Revelation seminars.

Q – If a person does have a demon spirit how do they get rid of it?

That's like asking me, "How do you build an airplane?" The answer would take much longer than we have here.

Q – What's the difference between the Interlinear Bible and Strong's concordance?

The Interlinear Bible is a Bible (in Hebrew and Greek with the English words underneath). Strong's Concordance is a like a dictionary that lists alphabetically – and defines – every word in the Bible.
